	questions about our products and services, to accept orders, to arrange appointments with our customer service, to document services provided or to charge for services. If you have provided us with your telephone number, mobile number or email address, we will use this to communicate with you regarding your request until the issue has been resolved. This also includes messages via email or SMS to confirm or remind you of appointments. Our lawful basis for collecting your personal data when you get in touch with us is our legitimate interests in as far as we aim to provide excellent customer service by responding to your request, and if you are an existing customer, for the performance of a contract with you. We will retain your personal data in respect of contact with us, complaints, repairs and servicing etc. in your registration account with us for as long as you have a Vaillant product and thereafter for the purposes of the Gas safe registration scheme. If you no longer have a Vaillant product you can ask us to remove your details from our customer database. Marketing consent for Personal Data uses: When you speak to the contact centre, they may also ask you if you consent to receiving advertising, marketing, customer satisfaction surveys and of course to document your consent to these uses. Consent is our lawful basis for these marketing personal data uses. You can withdraw your consent at any time and stop receiving marketing by contacting our contact centre or emailing our data protection officer dataprotectionUK@Vaillant-group.com. In the case of marketing your personal data will then be placed on a suppression list to ensure that you are not sent marketing. Voice recordings, on some of our call centre numbers we record telephone conversations for quality assurance or training purposes. Our lawful basis to process the voice recordings is our legitimate interests, namely, training, quality control, claim and complaint management. Voice recordings are collected using our telephony system and are held by our third-party telephony provider (Vonage) their data centre storing the recordings is in the UK. For service calls we retain the recordings for a maximum of 5 years. For any other calls we retain the recordings for up to 1 year.
7.	Customer and market research, surveys, and product reviews We may also occasionally send you a request to help us with market and customer research, customer surveys, or to provide a product or service review. The only personal data we process for this purpose is your name and email address from your account with us and the responses you provide to us. We do not record your responses in your account, the responses are retained separately and are only accessible by limited members of staff who are analysing the feedback to improve our services or produce an internal report.

No	Content
	In most cases we will aggregate the results of all responses to produce an overview of the outcomes to share with relevant persons in our UK business or our head office in Germany e.g. 35% of respondents would be interested in a smart device that adjusted their boiler settings to the most economical usage for them. In order to conduct market and customer research, customer surveys, or gather product or service reviews, we often use third parties who specialise in these activities. It is challenging to provide the names of every third party we might engage with at any time in the future, but some key examples are KHWS, Leftfield, Forsta, GIM, and Vaillant GmbH in Germany. Our lawful basis to seek this kind of feedback and reviews, is our legitimate interests in that a professional well managed organisation reasonably needs to ensure that its product offering, customer service, and quality of service meets customer’s expectations, and our plans and investments are directed to where a demand exists. You can ignore these requests or take part at your own choice or use the unsubscribe option where it is offered in the emails. We will retain your details and responses for as long as the data is valid and accurate, and any report containing aggregated results is still in circulation (as evidence should that be required).
8.	Social Media Links from our Website Our web site contains links or references to other web sites that we do not control and to which our privacy notice does not apply. Please be sure that you read the privacy policy of every website you visit to ensure you are happy with all the way that your personal data is being processed. Facebook & Instagram (Meta) Our websites use social plugins (“plugins”) provided by the social networks facebook.com and Instagram.com, operated by Meta Platforms Ireland Ltd. 4 Grand Canal Square, Grand Canal Harbour Dublin 2 Ireland. The plugins are identifiable by either: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a Facebook logo (white letter f on blue background or a thumb up icon) or the notice “Facebook Social Plugin”. For a full list of all social Plugins please see http://developers.facebook.com/docs/plugins; or • a Instagram logo (depicting a camera, but in the most minimal way and in multicolour, with just a square, a circle, and a dot on a white background). For a full list of all social Plugins please see Social Plugins - Instagram : EKM When you visit a page of our website that contains a social plugin, your browser establishes a direct connection to Facebook or Instagrams servers. Facebook and Instagram directly transfer the plugin content to your browser which embeds the latter into the website, enabling Facebook and Instagram to receive information about your having accessed the respective page of our website. Thus, we have no influence on the data gathered by the plugin and inform you according to our state of knowledge: The embedded plugins provide Facebook and Instagram with the information that you have accessed the corresponding page of our website. If you are logged into Facebook or Instagram, your visit can be assigned to your Facebook or Instagram account. If you interact with the plugins, for example by clicking “Like”, or entering a comment, the corresponding information is transmitted from your browser directly to Facebook or

Even if you are not logged into Facebook or Instagram, there is possibility that the plugin transmits your IP-address to Facebook or Instagram. For the information on the purpose and scope of data collection and processing by Facebook and Instagram, as well as your rights in this respect and settings options for protecting your privacy please visit either: Facebook's privacy policy: http://www.facebook.com/policy.php or Instagram's privacy policy https://privacycenter.instagram.com/policy. If you are a Facebook or Instagram member and do not want Facebook or Instagram to connect the data concerning your visit to our website with your member data already stored by Facebook or Instagram, please log off Facebook or Instagram before entering our website. Further you can block Facebook and Instagram social Plugins by using add-ons for your browser, like the "Facebook Blocker" and "Instagram Blocker", e.g. for or for Firefox either https://addons.mozilla.org/en-GB/firefox/addon/fb_ad_block/ or https://addons.mozilla.org/en-GB/firefox/addon/instagram-webview-blockstopper/ Facebook Advertising To make potential users aware of our Internet presence, we use the Facebook advertising network, which includes conversion tracking, an analysis service from Facebook (Facebook Inc., 1601 S. California Ave, Palo Alto, CA 94304, USA). Facebook will set a cookie on your computer ("conversion cookie") if you have been directed to our website via a Facebook ad. The cookie loses its validity at the end of 30 days. If you visit within this period certain pages of us, Facebook and we can recognize that the ad was clicked. Information obtained using the conversion cookie is used to create conversion statistics. We receive information about the total number of users who clicked on a particular ad and were redirected to a website associated with the conversion tracking network. Personal identification is not possible for us. If you do not wish to participate in the tracking procedure, you can also reject the required setting of a cookie, for example via a browser setting, which generally deactivates the automatic setting of cookies. X (formerly known as Twitter) Functions of X service are integrated in our site. These functions are being offered by X, Inc. (795 Folsom St., Suite 600, San Francisco, CA 94107, USA). The use of X and the "Repost" (formerly "Retweet") function links the websites you visit with your X account and makes this information available to other users. Data is transferred to X in the process. We want to make you aware that we as a provider of the pages have no knowledge of the content of the transferred data or of its use by X. You can find more information about the data privacy declaration of X at twitter.com/privacy. Please note, on our customer systems, X is referred to by its former Twitter icon featuring a bird silhouette. LinkedIn Our website uses plugins from LinkedIn (LinkedIn, LinkedIn Ireland Unlimited Company, Wilton Plaza Wilton Place, Dublin 2, Ireland). When you visit one of our LinkedIn plug-in-enabled sites, you will be connected to the servers of LinkedIn. The LinkedIn server will be informed which of our pages you visited. If you're logged in to your LinkedIn account, LinkedIn allows you to associate your

For more information on how to handle user data, please refer to the LinkedIn Privacy Policy at https://www.linkedin.com/legal/privacy-policy Personal data collected by cookies is deleted after 30 days.
9.	Cookies, analysis tools, tracking and targeting Cookies are small text files that are stored in the browser of your computer, tablet or phone when you first visit our websites. We use functional, analytical and tracking cookies. These ensure that the website works properly and that, for example, your preferred settings are remembered. These cookies also ensure the website works effectively. In addition, cookies are stored and processed by us that track your web surfing behaviour so that we can offer customised content, measure the effectiveness of and tailor internet advertising, to ensure the security of our web pages, to compile statistics and to measure the activities on the website with the aim of improving our offer and making it appropriate for your needs. This involves collection of information that can be classified as personal data, about you, your devices and your use of our services. We use our own cookies, in particular functional cookies, to make our website more user-friendly, to facilitate navigation and the use of forms, to simplify logging in and registration, to provide certain functions, to store the consent or rejection of cookies and to ensure the security of our website and our systems. We call these ‘necessary cookies’ as they need to be accepted to be able to fully use our website functionality. We also use third-party cookies, particularly in connection with the use of analytics tools, tracking and targeting technologies: Google Analytics Our website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies to help us analyse how you use the website. The information generated by the cookie regarding your use of this website (including your IP-address) will be transmitted and stored on a Google server in the United States of America. Google will use such information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on the web site activities for website operators as well as to provide other services in connection with website internet usage. Google may also transfer such information to third parties, provided this is required by law, or where third parties process such data on behalf of Google. Google will not associate your IP-address with any other Google data. You may refuse the generation of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser; however, please note that in refusing cookies you may not be able to make full use of all website functions. Please use the Google deactivation add-on "http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en" if you do not want your personal data to be transmitted to the web analytics service of Google Inc. You can object to the creation of user profiles via pseudonyms at any time. In addition, you can withdraw your consent to advertising at any time. In view of the discussion on the use of analysis tools with full IP-addresses, please note that this website uses Google Analytics with the extension/add-on "_anonymizeIp()" and that thus IP-addresses are processed only in an abbreviated form to rule out any direct relation to persons.

	When using third party cookies, it is possible that the collected data may be transferred by the respective cookie provider to a country outside the UK that does not offer an adequate level of data protection and in these circumstances, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure adequate safeguards are in place that meet the standards of UK data protection law.
10.	Cookie Consent Manager You can use the Cookie Consent Manager Tool integrated into our website to manage your individual settings for the use of cookies. There you will also find detailed information on the individual cookies. We use the Consent Manager Tool from Consentmanager AB (Håltgelvägen 1b, 72348 Västerås, Sweden) on our website. The tool enables you to give consent to data processing via the website by the setting of cookies, as well as to make use of your right to withdraw consent already given. The processing of data and the use of cookies is necessary for the documentation and administration of your settings. The following data is collected and transmitted to the provider of the tool: Date and time of the page call, information on the browser you use and the device you use, anonymised IP address, opt-in and opt-out data relating to the respective cookies. This data is not passed on to other third parties. For more information on the privacy terms of the cookie consent manager tool used, please visit: https://www.consentmanager.net/privacy.php.
11.	Transfer of personal data within the Vaillant Group and to third parties Personal data processed by us as the controller and, for the purpose of providing our website and services, is sometimes but not always passed on to other entities within the Vaillant Group and certain third parties who process the personal data on our behalf and strictly in accordance with our instructions. We may also pass on your personal data to installers, service engineers or other third parties if this is necessary for the provision of our service e.g. service and repair etc. Our lawful basis for this processing of your personal data would be to comply with a contract we have with you or another person, or our legitimate interests in providing our services as efficiently and professionally as possible. In certain situations, and on your request we may provide your Vaillant product performance and settings data to third-parties you have chosen to provide you with additional or connected services relevant to your Vaillant product (the third parties are whoever you wish to provide you with the additional or connected services but are most likely to include your energy provider (e.g. Ovo, British Gas etc. or any new entrants to the energy market) and/or your independent Vaillant product installer. Our lawful basis for sharing your data with your chosen third-party(s) is your consent. You can withdraw your consent to this data sharing at any time by contacting our Data Protection Officer by email on dataprotectionUK@vaillant-group.com or writing to us at our UK head office address (see contact details section below). We may also disclose your personal data to other third parties such as:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Professional advisers acting as processors or controllers or on behalf of processors or controllers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers based in the UK/EU who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services strictly where there is a need to share personal data, our lawful basis here is usually our legitimate interests in that all of these disclosures are necessary for operating a compliant business in the UK; Service providers acting as processors based in the UK/EU who provide IT and system administration services including, but not limited to River Marketing Limited (RIPPL) and Epsilon, Staci UK, our lawful basis for this is our legitimate interests in that it is legitimate for us to operate our business as we see fit provided this is within the law; Ratings Website providers, we may pass your name and email address to our third party Ratings Website providers (e.g. Trustpilot or Feefo) in order for them to request a review or feedback on our products or services. Our lawful basis for seeking your feedback and reviews is our legitimate interests, in that it is legitimate and important for a business to be able to hear its customers views, not everybody complains, and it is sometimes difficult for organisations to appreciate the customer journey or experience without reviews and feedback, in addition by using a third party means we are unable to influence what is said about our business in the public domain and this results in more honest reviews which again help us to improve; and Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If such a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice until you are notified of any changes. Our lawful basis for this is our legitimate interests in that it is legitimate to manage, merge or dispose of our business or parts of it as we see fit provided this is within the law. We may also be required to transfer your personal data to domestic or foreign courts, law enforcement authorities or other governmental institutions where this is required and permitted by law an example might be the police or emergency services, insurance investigations and court orders. Our lawful basis for this is compliance with a legal obligation or the vital interests of our customers or others.
12.	Personal Data transfers outside the UK In some circumstances (as set out in this policy), data processing of your personal data is carried out on our behalf by our Head Office Vaillant GmbH in Germany or a third-party organisation based outside the UK. This is particularly so in connection with the use of analysis tools, tracking and targeting cookies and other technologies. In such cases, unless there is an adequacy decision by the UK in relation to the recipient country (e.g., as with all EU member states), we will have agreed adequate safeguards for the protection of personal data by that organisation, in particular by agreeing the applicable EU and/or UK equivalent standard contractual clauses to ensure the same standards of protection as UK data protection law requires. Depending on the purpose of the transfer our lawful basis could be any of the bases set out in paragraph 3 above, more details can be found in the functionality sections above.
13.	Data security We apply technical and organisational security measures to protect the personal data we process against destruction, loss, alteration or unauthorised disclosure of, or access.

No	Content
	All personal data provided by you when using personalised services will be transmitted to us in encrypted form. Your data is password protected in the systems in which it is stored. The persons who have access to it are prohibited by strict security regulations from disclosing your data to third parties unless we have set out where a third party is used as part of the provision of any of our services in this policy. We also ensure that any data processor we use also implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to comply with data protection law.
14.	Your Data Protection Rights. You have a number of rights under data protection law in respect of your personal data, these are called Data Subject Rights.
